

I listen to KLOVE in my hometown. I affords me the opportunity to hear the kind of music I want to listen to on the radio. I should have that choice. It is listener supported and not dependent on commercial ads to stay on the air. That makes it all the more important to me for it to have a place on the air - I literally pay for it to be on the air.

KLOVE provides a positive influence in our community and gives us the option to have clean, christian music to listen to in our cars, homes and places of business.

KLOVE is definitely in the public interest in my community because it provides great music and positive influences to all listeners, whether they are intentionally listening or casually scanning channels.
